

Free and competitive markets promote diversity and serve the public good. Consolidation of media ownership suppresses competition and diminishes diversity. I urge you to reject alterations to financial interest and syndication rules that would allow further consolidation of media ownership.